Antibody-Targeted Liposarcoma Anticancer Strategy" to be carried out at the Department of Pharmaceutical Sciences (DSF) under the supervision of Prof. Margherita Morpurgo (DSF), acting as Tutor.

The Research assignment, with a duration of 12 months and an annual gross amount, for the recipient, of Euro 22.500,00 is awarded pursuant to art. 10 of the current Regulations for the awarding of Research assignments in accordance with art. 22-ter of Law 240/2010 within the framework of the aforementioned research project, Scientific Disciplinary Group 03/CHEM-08, Scientific-Disciplinary Sector CHEM-08/A.

The Research assignment, funded by the AIRC Foundation for Cancer Research ETS, concerns the performance of the research activity specified as follows:

Dedifferentiated liposarcoma (DDLPS) is an aggressive sarcoma with limited treatment options and frequent MDM2 oncogene amplification, leading to p53 suppression. G-quadruplex (G4) structures regulate gene transcription and represent promising therapeutic targets. We previously identified a G4 structure within the MDM2 promoter and showed that a naphthalene diimide (NDI) G4 ligand inhibits DDLPS growth by suppressing MDM2 and activating p53. This programme aims to enhance efficacy and reduce toxicity by developing a dual-targeting strategy combining MDM2-selective G4 ligands with antibody-mediated delivery. We will identify highly selective NDI G4 ligands, test their anticancer activity, and conjugate them to antibodies targeting cell surface receptors overexpressed in DDLPS using antibodydrug conjugates or antibody-driven nanoparticles. Lead candidates will be validated in 2D/3D models and xenograft mice. This approach may establish a new paradigm for precision therapy in DDLPS and other MDM2-driven cancers.

The contractor will be responsible for modifying antibodies against liposarcoma surface receptors to conjugate them to fluorophores, G-quadruplex ligands and nanoparticles:

- Conjugation of commercial antibodies to fluorophores;
- Conjugation of antibodies to G-quadruplex ligands;
- Conjugation of antibodies to nanoparticles;
- Conjugation of antibodies to both nanoparticles and G-quadruplex ligands;
- Evaluation of conjugation efficiency and release properties.
